

Disgrifiad:

Mae'n well cychwyn y daith gylch hon ym Melin y Wig os ydych chi'n cyrraedd yn y car. Mae'n dilyn Afon Clwyd drwy ddyffryn coedlog ag ochrau serth. Yna mae'n codi hyd at hen lwybr y porthmyn, drwy goetiroedd hynafol, sy'n gyfoeth o flodau gwyllt. Yma gellir gweld golygfeydd godidog ar draws y bryniau tuag at Eryri. Mae'r llwybr yn mynd i lawr yn raddol ar hyd lôn dawel gan ddod a chi'n ôl i bentref anghysbell Melin y Wig. Mae'r daith yn parhau ar hyd y lôn tuag at Fetws Gwerfil Goch, lle mae paneli cerfiedig unigryw o'r canol oesoedd a chytref o ystumod yn yr Eglwys. (Gellir benthg yr allweddau i weld yr Eglwys - edrychwch ar yr hysbysfwrdd am fanylion cyswllt os gwelwch yn dda). Daw'r llwybr a chi'n ôl i Felin y Wig ar ochr arall y dyffryn, gan nadreddu drwy goetiroedd derw hardd a dolydd llawn blodau sy'n gartref i rywogaethau megis y clafrllys, gwybedogion brith, ieir bach y glaw a'r giachod.

Description:

This circular walk is best started at Melin y Wig if arriving by car. It follows the Afon Clwyd through a steep-sided, wooded valley, then rises up on an old drovers track, through ancient woodland rich in wild flowers, to reveal beautiful views across the hills towards Snowdonia. A steady descent down a quiet lane brings you back to the isolated village of Melin y Wig. The route continues along the lane to Betws Gwerfil Goch, where the church is home to some unique medieval carved panels and a large colony of bats. (Keys to see inside the church are available – please check the church noticeboard for contact details). The path returns to Melin y Wig on the other side of the valley and snakes through beautiful oak woodlands and flower rich meadows supporting species such as scabious, pied flycatcher, ringlet butterflies and snipe.
